

Alums "Making a Difference"

Kelly De Vere-Rodgers
Rosary Class of 1987

Kelly started her career in Recruitment and Employee Relations Management for a large Entertainment Company in St. Louis, MO. Her next career opportunity moved to the mainstream of information technology in the late 1990's as a Technical Recruiter and Business Development Manager. During her tenure at NetEffects Inc., she attended a DISC seminar, behavioral style tool of effective communication, which started Kelly on the path of introspection and self-exploration about her own life purpose. She returned to college at the age of 35 and completed her Master's Degree in Professional Counseling at Lindenwood University, St. Charles, MO.

Today, Kelly is a Licensed Professional Counselor / National Certified Counselor and teams with children and parents, adolescents, teens, individuals, and couples to help them live their best life now. She is a regular guest on FOX 2 and KPLR 11 discussing a variety of topics in the media. Kelly and her husband teach a "Boundaries in Dating" class on creating and maintaining healthy relationships that has touched many single adults and teenagers' lives.

"My favorite times at Rosary included playing Volleyball and Softball and attending and supporting the other athletic teams. One highlight my senior year was being nominated MVP and selected All-Conference for Volleyball. I thoroughly enjoyed my education and have such an appreciation for the great teachers that are still committed to serving at Trinity. Thank you Sr. Karl Mary, Mr. Bebe, Mr. Whalen, and Mr. Seisner for your dedication to your students!"
